A brilliant function at the Executive Mansion last evening brought to have been given by the Governor of Virginia in honor of the memoers of the General Assembly, now in session here. The series has included five handsome dinners, and decorations for all were very elaborate and unique. The table has declared with all were very elaborate and unique. The table last night was set with a nuge central placque of calla lilies, Radiance roses and pink sweet peas, caught with butterfly bows or purple tuile ribbon, and small silver vaces filled with purple sweet peas and roses were scattered at intervals over the cloth, with big candied baskets and parasols filled with confections at each end. asols alled with confections at each end The lighted candles were set in round wheker baskets in nests of fragrant flowers. The baskets were filled with pink and invender sweet pens and Radiance roses and festooned with lavender tulle bows. The tall mantel was banked with white lilace and pink roses, and the walls were hung with a drapery of galax leaves. The draw-ing-room mantels were arranged with long green baskets of maidenhair ferns and hydrangeas, interspersed with Killarney roses and white blacs, and the library and hall were done in erimson roses in tall silver vases. Prominent Engagement.
The fiev, and airs Frank Page announce the engagement of their daughter. Miss Betsy Burwell Page, to Norman Gaynor, of New York. Mr. Gaynor has been a guest at "Onkland," in tianover County, for the past week. The exact onte of the marriage has not yet been announced, but it will probably be ceicbrated some time in June. The chagagement is one of the most interesting of the early spring season, owing to the social prominence of the bride-to-be. The Pages have long held honored places in the historical and social life of the State, and their family connection is one of the most important in the South. Mr. Gaynor is a son of the late William J. Gaynor, Mayor of New York.

Violin Recital.

An excedingly interesting violin recital will be given by the students of the Hequembourg School of Music on Wednessiay afternoon at 4 o'clock. All who are interested in music, and especially children's music, are invited to hear the work of a very serious band of students, many of whom are showing a purpose and earnestness not often found in little ones. The program will be made up of soles of all grades, demonstrating the talent and progress of the beginner to the more advanced child violinist. The students who will take part in the affair are Willard Alley, Reammy Stearnes, Mary Lackland, Benjamin Lackland, Elizabeth Patterson, Grace Christian, Thomas Wilson, Catherine Bemiss, Lena Schmidt, Cary Anderson, Ned Whitehead, Belen Felthaus, Selden Graham, E. Puccinelli, Catherine Hill, Alice Callaban, Mary alexander, Elizabeth Wood, Louis Blagi, Evelyn Richardson, Marka et Barker, Incz Woodall, Sarth Powers, Virginia Garrett, William Reed, Mary Ellen Rueger, Dixie Love, Lynn Weakley and William Romarek.

Says the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot:

"Mrs. Floyd Hughes was hostess on Friday at a luncheon given at her home, in York Street, in honor of Mrs. Elijah White, of Leesburg. The table was prettily decorated with a baskere of pink and white tulips, and the lights were shaded in rose color. Washington, March 2.—What amount President Wilson and other big men of the country paid into the income tax exchequer to-day will not be made public. By order of the Treasury Department, the collectors throughout the country must maintain utmost secreey about returns of individuals and corporations. A telegram to this effect was sent them.

Offices of the income tax collectors were ordered to remain open until midnight. This act on the part of Secretary McAdoo will save many penalties.
Three members of President Wilson's

Child by Carranza.

Nogales, Sonora, March 2—General Venustiano Carranza supreme chief of the Constitutionalists, to-day upheld the action of General Villa in halfing the commission inpestigating the death of the British subject, William S. Benton

In a statement issued by Yzidro Fabela, acting secretary of foreign relations General Carranza's stand was given as follows:

"General Villa has received orders from Mr. Carranza not to deal in business of an international character. In view of this order, General Villa suspended all negotiations with the American and English representatives and suspended the passes for the commission to go from Juarez to view the body of Benton."

The Benton incident held all the attention of the Constitutionalist commander-in-chief during the day. For the first time he summoned the entire membership of his provisional cabinet to consider the matter. It was reported that there was some difference of opinion.

IS SHOE MAKING AN ART?

As an article of adornment a woman's shoes can have but one virtue: to touch off the rest of her dress so that her appearanceconveys the impression of a single rythmic harmony. Perhaps you smile at the rythm and the harmony? But take care. If in Paris you happened to speak of Poiret flippantly as the dressmaker, your audience would draw itself up in a sense of nationally affronted dignity, for the Parisians take great pride in their Paul Poiret, l'artiste !

IT IS AN ART.

To this lofty interpretation we Americans are being aroused. For after all, the French are right. The apparel-maker works with the same tools that the artist works with, form and color, and within him must be some of the artist's creative energy. And, thus, to design shoes which shall not only be in keeping with, but shall heighten the effect of the rest of the apparel, the shoe maker must be something of an artist, too.
